

CELEBRATE NATIONAL POETRY MONTH WITH A:

BOOK
SPINE
Poetry
CONTEST

The Rules:

1) During the month of April, find Palmer Public Library books (at least three) and stack them up, arranging them so the titles make a poem.

Some examples:

2) Bring your poem (one entry per person, please) to the librarian at our main circulation desk to submit your entry!

Your book spine poem will be placed on our display shelves, and you will be entered in your age group (Adult, Young Adult, or Youth) to win one of the following prizes:

1st place - Kindle Fire

2nd place - We will purchase a poetry book of your choice for our collection, and will include a bookplate with your name in it.

3rd place - Book prize

Winning poems will be chosen with votes placed through the Palmer Library Facebook page and by patrons within the library.
