

The Palmer Public Library Presents

AN EVENING OF POEMS BY ROBERT FROST

Performed by:
Stephen Collins
Actor – Teacher/Lecturer

Tuesday, April 30th
6:00 PM

An Evening of Frost is a unique, interactive performance that begins with a short biographical introduction into the poet's life. Robert Frost is greatly misunderstood, and far more complicated than the surface indicates.

There will be an open discussion of the following poems:
"A Tuft of Flowers," "Mending Wall," "Birches," "After Apple Picking,"
"Acquainted with the Night," "Desert Places."

Stephen is hoping that attendees will come having read these poems, willing to discuss them.

The performance will close with a dramatic reading of Frost's masterful use of blank verse in the hauntingly memorable
"The Death of the Hired Man."

This program is free to the public. Pre-registration is not required.
