

INTRODUCING!
One Town & Seven Railroads
The Railroads of Palmer, Massachusetts
Past, Present & Never Were

Created and written by the members of the Palmer Public Library Railroad Advisory Board

FEATURING:

Highly detailed maps

Newly discovered historical photographs

Find out more about Palmer, MA: "The Town of Seven Railroads"...

-  1839– First railroad track reaches (Palmer) town border
-  The history of Palmer's notable Union Station and its serene adjacent park, the work of two famous architects: H.H. Richardson & Frederick Law Olmsted
-  Grand visions of famous railroad moguls Vanderbilt, Morgan, Mellon and Chapin
-  Train Wrecks
-  "The Railroad that Never Was" and other local mysteries explained

Partial funding for this book was made possible by a grant from the MTA Tourism Grant Program.

We also invite you to visit the Palmer Public Library and our Railroad Research Room during open hours to purchase your copy.
 Your tour and firsthand railroad experience of Palmer begins here!

Please complete order form and submit with check or money order payable to:
 Palmer Public Library 1455 North Main St., Palmer, MA 01069.
www.palmer.lib.ma.us

Order terms apply to USA sales only. For more information 283-3330 ext. 0.

Name: _____ book(s) X $22.00 = _____

Address: _____ + Shipping & Handling +$4.00

Please allow 2-4 weeks.
Note: S+H charge is a flat rate for shipment to one address.

Phone: _____

email(opt): _____ TOTAL Amount Enclosed _____